18 RULES OF CONDUCT

19 On October 11, 2005, the court set trial in this matter for January 10, 2006.
20 Counsel shall be present at 8:30 a.m. to resolve any remaining matters.

21 I. Motions In Limine Hearing and Briefing Schedule

22 The hearing to consider motions in limine will be held on December 19, 2005, at 23 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom Three. In addition to addressing any filed motions in limine, at that time 24 the court will conduct a trial confirmation hearing and, to the extent possible, address any other 25 outstanding matters pertaining to the conduct of the trial.

26 By 4:00 p.m. on November 14, 2005, all motions in limine, with supporting points 27 and authorities, shall be filed and served.

28 By 4:00 p.m. on December 5, 2005, opposition to any motion in limine shall be

1 filed and served. If a party does not oppose a motion in limine, that party shall file and serve in 2 the same manner a Statement of Non-Opposition to that motion in limine.

3 By 4:00 p.m. on December 12, 2005, replies to any opposition shall be filed and 4 served.

5 II. Witness List

6 The United States shall file and serve its witness list by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday,
7 January 5, 2006.

8 III. Trial Briefs

9 All parties are directed to file and serve a trial brief by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday,
10 January 5, 2006.

11 The parties need not include in a trial brief any issue that is adequately addressed
12 in a motion in limine, or in an opposition brief to a motion in limine. Also, the court does not 13 require in a trial brief the advance disclosure of a party's trial strategy or any information 14 protected from advance disclosure by constitutional, statutory or case authority.

15 IV. Proposed Jury Instructions

16 The parties shall file and serve proposed jury instructions by 4:00 p.m. on 17 Thursday, January 5, 2006, along with a copy of the instructions on a 3-1/2 inch computer disc, 18 preferably formatted for WordPerfect 10.

19 All proposed jury instructions shall be in duplicate. One set shall indicate the 20 party proposing the instruction, with each instruction numbered or lettered, shall cite supporting 21 authority, and shall include the customary "Given, Given as Modified, or Refused," showing the 22 court's action with regard to each instruction. The other set shall be an exact copy of the first set,
23 but shall be a "clean" copy that does not contain the identification of the offering party, 24 instruction number or letter, supporting authority, or reference to the court's disposition of the 25 proposed instruction.

26 The parties are ordered to confer after the trial confirmation hearing to determine 27
28

1 which instructions they agree should be given. As soon as possible thereafter, the parties shall 2 submit a list of joint, unopposed instructions. As to those instructions to which the parties
3 dispute, the court will conduct its jury instruction conference during trial at a convenient time.

4 V. Exhibits

5 The United States shall lodge with the Courtroom Deputy two sets of its exhibit
6 binder, plus the original and two copies of its exhibit list, by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 5, 7 2006. The United States shall also serve copies of its exhibit binder and exhibit list upon 8 defendant by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 5, 2006.

9 The parties are ordered to confer after the trial confirmation hearing for the 10 purpose of pre-marking exhibits. All joint exhibits must be pre-marked with numbers preceded 11 by the designation JT/-- (e.g., JT/1, JT/2). The United States' exhibits shall be pre-marked with 12 numbers. Defense exhibits are to be pre-marked with letters.<sup>1</sup>

13 1. Counsel are to confer and make the following determination with respect to each 14 proposed exhibit to be introduced into evidence, and to prepare separate indexes - one listing 15 joint exhibits, and one listing each party's separate exhibits:

16 a. Duplicate exhibits, i.e., documents that all parties desire to introduce into 17 evidence, shall be marked as a joint exhibit, and numbered as directed above. Joint exhibits shall 18 be listed on a separate index, and shall be admitted into evidence on the motion of any party, 19 without further foundation.

20 b. As to exhibits that are not jointly offered, and to which there is no objection to 21 introduction, those exhibits will likewise be appropriately marked, e.g., Plaintiff's Exhibit 1 or 22 Defendant's Exhibit A, and shall be listed in the offering party's index in a column entitled 23 "Admitted In Evidence." Such exhibits will be admitted upon introduction and motion of the 24 party, without further foundation.

26 <sup>1</sup>To the extent that defendant is able to disclose exhibits in advance of trial, such exhibits
27 shall be subject to the joint determination procedure set forth in this portion of the Pretrial Order.

1 c. Those exhibits to which the only objection is a lack of foundation shall be
2 marked appropriately, e.g., Plaintiff's Exhibit 2 - For Identification, or Defendant's Exhibit B -
3 For Identification, and indexed in a column entitled "Objection Foundation."

4 d. Remaining exhibits as to which there are objections to admissibility not solely 5 based on a lack of foundation shall likewise be marked appropriately, e.g., Plaintiff's Exhibit 3 -
6 For Identification or Defendant's Exhibit C - For Identification, and indexed in a third column
7 entitled "Other Objection" on the offering party's index.

8 2. Each separate index shall consist of the exhibit number or letter, a brief description 9 of the exhibit, and the three columns outlined above, as demonstrated in the example below:

10 INDEX OF EXHIBITS

11 EXHIBIT #	12 DESCRIPTION	13 ADMITTED	14 OBJECTION	15 OTHER
		16 IN EVIDENCE	17 FOUNDATION	18 OBJECTION

19 The court has no objection to counsel using copies. However, the copies must be 20 legible. If any document is offered into evidence that is partially illegible, the court may sua 21 sponte exclude it from evidence.

22 VI. Voir Dire

23 The parties shall file and serve proposed voir dire questions, if any, by 4:00 p.m.
24 on Thursday, January 5, 2006.

25 Further, in order to aid the court in the proper voir dire examination of the 26 prospective jurors, counsel should lodge with the court on the first morning of trial a list of all 27 prospective witnesses, including rebuttal witnesses, that counsel reasonably expect to call. The 28 purpose of the lists is to advise the prospective jurors of possible witnesses to determine if a prospective juror is familiar with any potential witness.

VII. Use Of Videotape and Computers

Any party wishing to use a videotape for any purpose during trial shall lodge a

1 copy of the videotape with the Courtroom Clerk by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 5, 2006. If a 2 written transcript of audible words on the tape is available, the court requests that the transcript
3 be lodged with the court, solely for the aid of the court.

4 _____ If counsel intends to use a laptop computer for presentation of evidence, they shall 5 contact the courtroom deputy clerk at least one week prior to trial. The courtroom deputy clerk
6 will then arrange a time for counsel to bring the laptop to the courtroom, and meet with a
7 representative of the Information and Technology Department and receive a brief training session
8 on how counsel's equipment interacts with the court's audio/visual equipment. If counsel 9 intends to use PowerPoint, the resolution should be set no higher than 1024 x 768 when 10 preparing the presentation.

11 VIII. Agreed Summary Of The Case

12 The parties shall lodge with the Courtroom Clerk a joint agreed summary of the 13 case, briefly outlining the positions of the parties by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 5, 2006.
14 The summary will be read to the jury panel at the outset of the trial solely for the purposes of 15 assisting in the jury selection process. The contents of the summary shall not be deemed to be 16 evidence or an admission or stipulation by a party as to any contested fact or issue.

17 IX. Morning Conferences During Trial

18 During the trial, it is the obligation of counsel to meet with the court each morning 19 to advise the court and opposing counsel as to what documents are proposed to be put into 20 evidence that have not previously been admitted by stipulation, court order, or otherwise ruled
21 upon. The court will rule on those documents, to the extent possible, prior to the commencement 22 of trial each day out of the presence of the jury. If the ruling depends upon the receipt of 23 testimony, the court will rule as requested upon the receipt of such testimony.

24 The court shall consider any other legal matter at morning conferences as well.
25 The court does not wish to recess the trial to hear legal argument outside of the presence of the 26 jury, and proper preparation by counsel will eliminate the need for that result.

1 X. Objections To Pretrial Order

2 As to any deadline in this Order that occurs after the date of the trial confirmation 3 hearing, any party may ask for reconsideration and/or the court may sua sponte revise that date at 4 the trial confirmation hearing. Other than such dates, any party who objects to any aspect of this 5 Pretrial Order may, within ten (10) calendar days after the date of service of this order, file and 6 serve written objections to such provisions of this order. Any such objection shall specify a 7 requested correction, addition or deletion.

8 XI. Rules of Conduct During Trial

9 A. General Rules

10 1. All participants in the trial shall conduct themselves in a civil manner. There 11 shall be no hostile interchanges between any of the participants.

12 2. All oral presentations shall be made from the podium, unless otherwise 13 permitted by the court.

14 3. Sidebar conferences are discouraged. Legal arguments or discussion of issues 15 outside the presence of the jury should be done during recesses.

16 4. Counsel shall advise their respective clients and witnesses not to discuss any 17 aspect of the case in the common areas of the courthouse accessible to the jurors, such as 18 the lobby, the elevators, the hallways and the cafeteria.

19 B. Jury Selection

20 1. The court will conduct voir dire to be supplemented by any written questions 21 submitted by counsel prior to trial and after the court has concluded its questioning of the 22 jury panel. In some circumstances, the court may allow brief direct questioning by 23 counsel.

24 C. Opening Statements

25 1. Counsel may use visual aids in presenting the opening statement. However, 26 any proposed visual aids shall be shown to opposing counsel before opening statement.

1           D. Case in Chief

2           1. Counsel shall have his/her witnesses readily available to testify so that there are 3 no delays in the presentation of evidence to the trier of fact.

4           2. At the close of each trial day, counsel shall disclose his/her anticipated
5 witnesses and order of presentation for the next day, so that any scheduling or evidentiary 6 issues may be raised at that time.

7           E. Witnesses

8           1. Before approaching a witness, counsel shall secure leave of court to approach 9 the witness.

10          2. Before approaching a witness with a writing, counsel shall first show the 11 writing to opposing counsel.

12          F. Exhibits

13          1. All exhibits shall be marked and identified in accordance with the instructions
14 in the Pretrial Order.

15          2. An exhibit shall not be published to the jury until it has been admitted into 16 evidence and counsel has secured leave of court to publish the exhibit.

17          3. The court usually will conduct an on the record review of the exhibits that have 18 been admitted in evidence at the conclusion of each party's case in chief and after each 19 party has rested its entire case.

20          G. Objections

21          1. No speaking objections or arguments are permitted in the presence of the jury.
22 Counsel shall state the specific legal ground(s) for the objection, and the court will rule 23 based upon the ground(s) stated. The court will permit counsel to argue the matter at the 24 next recess.

25          2. The court will not assume that any objection made also implies with it a motion
26 to strike an answer that has been given. Therefore, counsel who has made an objection, 27
28

1 and who also wishes to have an answer stricken, shall also specifically move to strike the 2 answer.

3 H. Closing Argument

4 1. Counsel may use visual aids in presenting the closing argument. However, any 5 proposed visual aids shall be shown to opposing counsel before closing argument.

7 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ALL PROVISIONS OF THIS ORDER MAY BE GROUNDS
8 FOR THE IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS ON ANY AND ALL COUNSEL AS WELL AS ON 9 ANY PARTY WHO CAUSES NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THIS ORDER

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.
